

The President

New- Caledonia, 13 september 2019

His Majesty, The King,

It is with great emotion and sadness that I learned of the tragic death of the Prime Minister of Tonga, Mr. Akilisi Pohiva.

Allow me to express to you my deepest emotion and sincere condolences for the disappearance of your compatriot.

I measure the pain that is yours and share in thought the mourning that has just struck our two peoples. My deep compassion also goes to families and loved ones.

In assuring you of all my sympathy in these particularly trying moments, I beg you to accept, His Majesty the King, the expression of my saddened feeling.
